

LOGGING INTO RPR FOR THE FIRST TIME

website url: <https://www.narrpr.com>

Go to “Create a new account?” and click on the Create button.

The screenshot shows the RPR website's login interface. At the top, the RPR logo and "REALTORS PROPERTY RESOURCE" are displayed. Below the logo, the text "Welcome Back, Please Sign in..." is shown. There is a "Forgot Password?" link, a text input field for the username, a "Password" label, another text input field, a "Sign in" button, and a "Remember me" checkbox. Below the login fields, there is a promotional banner with an image of a hand pointing at a screen, accompanied by text: "We've added some new features recently. Watch these two videos..." and links for "Mapping Features" and "Saved Searches". Below this banner, there is a "Did you know:" section and a "Create" button. At the bottom of the page, there is a navigation menu with links for "About RPR", "Blog", "Terms of Use", "Press Info", "FAQ's", "RPR on Facebook", "Help", "Report Errors", "NAR Membership", and "API". A "Need a little help? Call us or click on the Live Chat button" link is also present, along with a small image of a woman wearing a headset.

You will need your NRDS number and the page has a link to find out what your NRDS number is in case you do not already have it handy (Where's my NRDS#?).

The screenshot shows the RPR website's "Create a New Account" page. At the top, the RPR logo and "REALTORS PROPERTY RESOURCE" are displayed. Below the logo, the text "Create a New Account..." is shown. There is a "Where's my NRDS #?" link, a "Last Name" text input field, and an "NRDS#" text input field. Below these fields, there is a "Check to see if your MLS has signed up yet..." checkbox and a "Create" button. Below the "Create" button, there is a map of the United States with numerous colored pins (red, yellow, green) indicating the status of various MLSs. A legend below the map identifies the pins: a red pin for "Live", a blue pin for "Scheduled Launch Date", and a yellow pin for "In Launch Queue (to be scheduled)". Below the map, there is a "Sign in" button. To the right of the map, there is a section titled "Learn More about RPR" with an image of a hand pointing at a screen. Below the image, there is a "Welcome to Realtors Property Resource" section, followed by a paragraph: "RPR, a member benefit of the National Association of REALTORS®, is a national database of assessor, recorder, and mortgage data, MLS content, foreclosure information, demographics, neighborhood data, and more. You must be a member of a participating MLS to sign-in. To find out if your MLS is participating, please check the map on the RPR Blog."

Click on the Create button once you have entered your last name and NRDS number and follow the instructions for inputting your email address and creating a password.

The screenshot shows the Realtors Property Resource (RPR) website. The header features the RPR logo and the text "REALTORS PROPERTY RESOURCE". The main content area is divided into two sections. On the left, under the heading "Create a New Account...", there is a form with a text input field containing "Morgan" and a dropdown menu for "Where's my NRDS #?" with the value "253004717". Below the form is a "Create" button and a link that says "Check to see if your MLS has signed up yet...". A map of the United States is displayed with numerous colored pins (red, yellow, blue) indicating various locations. A legend below the map identifies the pin colors: red for "Live", blue for "Scheduled Launch Date", and yellow for "In Launch Queue (to be scheduled)". Below the map is a "Sign in" button and the text "... or sign back in here...". On the right, under the heading "Learn More about RPR", there is an image of a hand pointing at a laptop screen and a smartphone. Below the image is a paragraph of text: "Welcome to Realtors Property Resource. RPR, a member benefit of the National Association of REALTORS®, is a national database of assessor, recorder, and mortgage data, MLS content, foreclosure information, demographics, neighborhood data, and more. You must be a member of a participating MLS to sign-in. To find out if your MLS is participating, please check the map on the RPR Blog."
