

Florida Realtors Forms Descriptions

Commercial Forms

Commercial Contract (CC-4)

This form may be used for the sale and purchase of commercial property. This form is not designed for complex transactions or the sale of businesses without land.

Commercial Contract: Optional Clauses (OC-5)

This form contains additional clauses that a seller and buyer may want to add to the Commercial Contract.

Confidentiality and Non-Disclosure Agreement (CNA-1)

This form may be used by a listing broker when the listing broker wants the prospect and the prospect's broker (if there is one) to keep confidential the information provided by the listing broker.

Designated Sales Associate (DS-5)

This form may be used in transactions, other than residential sales, where both seller and buyer have assets of one million dollars or more and want the broker to designate different salespersons to represent each of them as single agents.

Exclusive Right of Sale Listing Agreement for Commercial Property (ERS-6cp)

This form is a listing agreement for commercial property in which the seller grants to the listing broker the sole right to sell the property.

Vacant Land Contract (VAC-10)

This form may be used for the sale and purchase of vacant land.

Escrow Forms

Escrow Deposit Receipt Verification (EDRV-1)

When an attorney or title company holds a deposit pursuant to a sale and purchase contract, this form may be used by the broker, who prepared or presented the offer, to comply with FREC rule 61J2-14.008(2)(b), F.A.C.

Monthly Reconciliation Statement Real Estate Trust Account (MSR-5)

This form may be used for the required monthly reconciliations of the broker's trust accounts.

Monthly Reconciliation Statement Real Estate Trust Account Addendum (MSRA-1)

This form is an addendum to MSR-5. It may be used to report outstanding checks and deposits not credited in paragraph 2 of the MSR-5 and to report an itemized list of trust liability in paragraph 3 of the MSR-5.

Notice of Escrow Dispute/Good Faith Doubt (NED-6)

This form provides a link to the DBPR form that is used by a broker to notify the FREC that the broker has either received conflicting demands for a deposit held in her/his escrow account or has good faith doubt as to which party is entitled to funds held in her/his escrow account.
